American markets has led to a better enquiry here, and some transactions have taken place in Oomrawuttee descriptions at our quotations. From Akola we hear that except on the low-lying grounds where fields are overrun with grass and weeds, the crops are progressing well. After the late heavy rains, the weather seems to have cleared up, and the break, to all appearance, may be of a long duration. It is feared, however, that any untimely showers in September would upset all calculations, and be the means of reducing the crop estimates considerably. We quote :—

PRODUCE SETTLEMENTS.—The following is a translation of what passed at the meeting of a large number of Native dealers in Wheat and Seeds, which was held at the Mandvie-bunder on the 22nd instant :—"That inasmuch as European exporters do not pay us in full for the produce and grain which are delivered to them, and thousands of our rupees are thus locked up without interest, our own money in consequence is not useful to us in the busy season ; and, moreover, it not unfrequently happens that, owing to the inability of buyers, we have to suffer thousands of rupees' loss. Taking all these things into consideration, the dealers, who had met together on the 15th instant, have unanimously and truly adopted a resolution to the effect that after the 17th of July, 1883, all the tares of gunny bags for produce sold and delivered bearing red or black line, are to be settled on the basis of 2¼ lbs. for each bag, and the small ones at 2¼ lbs. per bag. After making a deduction on this principle, a receipt is to be taken from the buyer's muccadums for the net weight, and payments to be then obtained from the offices in full settlement of accounts. With regard to the tares, the empty bags to be removed within one month from the date of weighment of the goods, but should they not be returned by buyers within the said period, a charge to be made for such empty bags. We therefore earnestly recommend all [illegible] it in conformity with the above terms." [illegible] reason the business taking place in [illegible] for the past few days is small, [illegible] the low freights now ruling. [illegible] undergone no change in any of [illegible]

[illegible] devoid of animation ; very [illegible] Liverpool via Canal, 15s. for [illegible] urement. The quarantine [illegible] e in consequence of the [illegible] ts business in forward [illegible] ascapedia is asking 22s. 6d. for [illegible] 25s. for Cotton, August loading.

PIECE-GOODS show no signs of improvement as yet, but as the B. B. and C. I. Railway will begin to carry goods on Thursday, and the G. I. P. Railway in about a week, some enquiry for the up-country markets ought soon to spring up.

COPPER is in fair demand, and sales of ready Braziers have been made at Rs. 45½ per cwt.

DEFECTIVE OR FAILING SIGHT.

THE sense of sight is so valuable that the importance of perfect and carefully adjusted spectacles can scarcely be overrated ; although the wearing of single eye-glasses should be strictly avoided, we have the highest medical authority, confirmed by daily experience, that imperfect glasses, together with the haphazard plan of selection generally employed, are frequent causes of irremediable injury to the sight ; and as no present economy can compensate for such a loss, it behoves all to be cautious how they are tempted to use the common pebble or glass spectacles now so generally sold.

For the guidance of those who are using pebble spectacles, it may be stated that when the pebbles are not equal in the grain, and not polished on the principle which has been universally declared the most appropriate, based on scientific research, they are injurious to the sight.

Unadvisable as the unnecessary wearing of spectacles undoubtedly is, the common notion that their use should be postponed to the utmost is proved beyond dispute to be a grave mistake.

Being in possession of all the optical instruments taken over by us from Dr. A. Menist, we are not only in a position to suit the eye sight to perfection, but to supply different accommodations for each eye which so frequently are needed.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 25, 1883.

THE announcement that the Government have abandoned the agreement with M. de Lesseps respecting the construction of a second canal at Suez is a surprising, not to say a disagreeable, incident. It is surprising insomuch as it betrays either remarkable indiscretion, or equally striking weakness, on the part of the Government. It is disagreeable by reason of the tension which it discloses in our relations with France. We are quite at a loss to discover the character of the opposition to which Her Majesty's Government have succumbed. Unless they have been divided among themselves, Ministers would hardly give way, in a matter of international significance, before the interested agitation of shipowners or company-mongers. And it is not reasonable to suppose that internal dissensions weakened their resolution. Had serious doubts existed in the Cabinet as to the expediency of entering into the agreement with M. de Lesseps, the proposition would never have been brought forward. Once agreed upon, it would be sure of the unanimous support of Government. What then has led to the abandonment of the scheme ? Doubtless it would have been better to have had a canal free from French influence, but in the face of the opinion of the Law Officers of the Crown respecting M. de Lesseps' monopoly, this appears, under present circumstances, impracticable. If this be conceded, it would not be easy to hit on a more satisfactory arrangement than that proposed by the Government. It is quite evident that Mr. Gladstone's scheme has met with much more general disapproval than was displayed by a meeting in the City. This hostility must have arisen either from a dislike to entering into any arrangement with the French Company, or from the unwillingness of Mr. Gladstone's supporters to follow him in completing Lord Beaconsfield's memorable stroke of policy. For various reasons we are inclined to attribute the abandonment of M. de Lesseps to the influence of the former feeling. Every one, and none more so than the Radicals, is anxious to assert the necessity of consolidating our supremacy at Suez. The opinions expressed in journals of all shades of colour, and by public men of both and all parties, prior to the publication of the draft agreement, were to the effect that the new canal, constructed where and how it might, must be a British canal. Even those who were willing to allow M. de Lesseps to construct the new canal insisted that British influence must, in future, predominate in its management. The Glasgow Herald, a paper of great commercial influence and moderate opinions, was an exponent of this view. Referring to M. de Lesseps' visit to London, the Herald hoped that "while it may be well to allow the present Canal Company to undertake the new enterprise, Lord Granville has been careful to see that Frenchmen are not to have the predominance in the management which they have hitherto enjoyed. Looking to the large proportion of the shares which we hold, to the vast influence we have legitimately won in Egypt, and to the great percentage which we contribute to the receipts, it is absurd that we should have only three representatives on the board of directors against seven times as many whom Frenchmen nominate in their interests. British commerce would have reason to complain if, after having forced the construction of a parallel canal and a reduction of the tariff, it should have as little control of the new enterprise as it had of the old. Other reforms may be necessary in the course of time, and what power shall we have then for insisting on them ?" The Economist, too, was emphatic in the same line.

If we consider what all these conditions amount to, we shall see that, if they were insisted on, M. de Lesseps could become little more than the Executive Engineer of the British Government. Possibly, the Frenchman, confident in the value of his concession, would object to the position proposed to be assigned to him. The abandoned agreement, it seems to us, accorded M. de Lesseps his rightful position in connexion with the Canal, and, at the same time, secured the ultimate right of supervision to the British Government. Of course, the knowledge we possess of the agreement is necessarily limited. For this reason, we are not in a position to judge fairly of the objections which have been taken to it. It is clear, however, that the terms agreed on were open to serious criticism, else the Government would not have despatched Sir Rivers Wilson to Paris to obtain a modification of them. It must also be borne in mind that the opposition has not been exhibited in a debate in the House, but has grown up outside, and has so far influenced the opinions of legislators that the Government have shrunk from submitting, their arrangement for the approval of Parliament. Although M. de Lesseps has declared the British Government released from the agreement, it is clear that no satisfactory understanding exists between them. Mr. Gladstone, on his part, hopes that time may produce a better agreement, and deprecates a debate which by its acrimony might prejudice the relations between France aud England. The fact that the Prime Minister should anticipate an acrimonious debate shows that an amount of feeling has been aroused with regard to France which we out here are not at present in a position to appreciate. M. de Lesseps seems to disregard all this. He says "the Company will proceed without delay to construct a parallel canal independently." He adds that "the Company will not take advantage of its temporary exceptional position in Egypt, or infringe the legal rights of others." It is not easy to say what M. de Lesseps means by this last assurance. It is clear, however, that the British Government are no parties to his resolve to go on with the new canal. From the circumstance that Mr. Gladstone hopes that time may produce a better arrangement, we may infer that they are not prepared to allow M. [illegible] with the venture on its own account. And after all, as the ex-Khedive pointed out a few weeks ago, it is the British Government which must be reckoned with in the long run. M. de Lesseps has admitted that land must be acquired before he can go on with a second canal. It would not meet the views of the opposition to the late agreement if M. de Lesseps were to construct the canal independently. If this opposition were sufficiently strong to compel the British Government to withdraw from their arrangement, we may feel assured it is equally potent to force the Government to prevent M. de Lesseps carrying out his own scheme. The British Government and M. de Lesseps are, therefore, in a sort of dead-lock. Whether the French Government will support the Company is uncertain. If they do, it follows from present events that they must be resisted. Under these circumstances it is hardly possible to aggravate the gravity of the tension between the two countries. All we can do is to hope that the Prime Minister's evident desire to avoid wounding the susceptibilities of France may be productive of beneficial results.

SECRETLY planned assaults on defenceless European or any other ladies by paid villains certainly cannot be tolerated. We agree to that proposition at once. If such there be, why not put a stop to them by bringing up before the courts, if not the paid villains, at least the villains who pay them ? Who are they ? What is the evidence to show that they have paid money for such vile purposes ? Produce it. Produce even decent presumptive evidence that any body of men or devils have paid money to villains ; and the High Court exists, the Andamans are extant, and probably the conspirators will never be in a position to conspire again. Is there any such evidence ? Even a tittle of evidence ? If there be, it is not shadowed out in the Pioneer's correspondent's excited lucubration. How then are we to be sure that there are "paid villains," and conspirators who pay them to commit assaults on defenceless European ladies ? We may be sure if we accept as proof the assertion of a man who has evidently lost his head. Perhaps there are many such just now in Calcutta, but before resigning ourselves to beliefs as strong perhaps, and as sincere, and probably as wholly baseless, as those which have produced the Juden-hetze in Eastern Europe, where the Jews are every now and again the victims of a storm of indignation because knaves say, and fools believe, that they make the bread of the Passover with children's blood, we should like to have at least one little affidavit to go upon. But there is not even one. There is no connexion between the silly threat to cut Mr. Justice Norris into eighty bits, which was evidently written by some schoolboy, and the alleged outrage on a young lady stopping in the learned judge's house. Are the facts of the case in question consistent with the charge based on them, and consistent with no other theory ? A lady awakes in the night, the lamp is out ; she thinks she has been awakened by a man's hand being placed on her

Mr. Gladstone announced in the House of Commons last night that, in consequence of the opposition it had met with, the Ministry withdrew from the agreement with M. de Lesseps. MR. DALGLEISH, who has just returned from Kashgaria, has arrived in Simla, and will, it is expected, furnish the Foreign Office with an interesting account of his mission to Chinese Turkistan.

MR. R. L. MANGLES, V.C., and Mr. J. Simson have resigned the Bengal Civil Service.

HIS HIGHNESS THE MAHARAJA OF CASHMERE is remained at Jummoo this year, having been advised by his doctors not to go to the hills. The Lahore paper says His Highness has lately been in better health.

THE Bishop of Lahore was, on June 8, at Teheran. At Isfahan he had stayed more than a fortnight, and had held both an Ordination and a Confirmation, giving the addresses at both services in Persian. He was unfortunately detained for nearly a week at Teheran by a sprain; but he hoped to leave on June 13, and to reach England about a month later.

THE Persian Government has extended for a further period of four months, from the 5th July, 1883, the withdrawal of the interdict on the export of grain from the Persian Gulf littoral and Fars.

ON the 7th instant the new cantonment of Pishin was visited by a severe storm which blew down nearly the whole of the tents occupied by the Political staff, officers, and the troops. The bazaar tents and shops were also blown down. Two days afterwards a severe storm visited Gulistan, wrecking the bazaar, but doing very little damage to goods, the Bunnias having most of their merchandise packed away, preparatory to their proceeding en masse to the new cantonments.

THE Amir has signified his acceptance of the annual subsidy of twelve lakhs offered by the Indian Government. He will leave Gundamuk shortly for Kabul, and has expressed an intention of going on thence to Herat. His presence is certainly urgently needed in North-Western Afghanistan, the Pioneer remarks, as intrigues against his authority have been rife for several months past in that quarter. "It should not be forgotten, however, that Abdur Rahman will be within easy reach at Herat of Russian agents from Askabad and the adjacent towns in Persia: and for the Indian Government to leave him free to be tempted by men of the De Lessar stamp would be absolute folly. We therefore hope that Mahomed Afsul Khan, the Agent of the British Government in Afghanistan, will accompany the force which will move to Herat; and that, in addition, measures will be taken to ensure the presence of English officers of experience on the Perso-Afghan frontier during Abdur Rahman's stay in Herat."

THE Indian Daily News' opinion on the question of subsidising the Amir is not flattering to the Foreign Office. We quote as follows from its article on the subject:—

"When he attacked the Badshah of Kunar, and when he got into trouble with the Shinwaris, Abdul Rahman was aiming blows at the influence of the Government of India. At last the Foreign Office has become tired of the Amir's tricks, and the Amir has become tired of playing them, and therefore he is to get £120,000 per annum, simply for obliging the Government of India by making a barren statement that its friends are his friends, and its enemies his enemies. The beauty of this exquisitely disgraceful farce is in the fact that the Amir has just declared the Badshah of Kunar, the acknowledged friend of the Government of India, to be an enemy; nay, more, treating the Badshah as an enemy, he has, he says, taken Asmar and Chanagai up; and yet in the teeth of this fact the Government will pay £120,000 per annum to receive a similar repetition of the profession made by the Amir in 1880. The bargain is not quite a triumph for the Indian Foreign Office, nor is it a glory for the Indian Government; and, looking at it in a business kind of way, it ought to produce a considerable amount of dissatisfaction when it is made known to the people of England."

IT appears from a correspondence which has passed between the N. W. P. Government and the Agent of the Elgin Mills and the Manager of the Indian Carpet Manufacturing Co., Ld., that the question of competition between the jails and private firms is still receiving the attention of Government. An offer made by the Carpet Company to employ the juvenile prisoners as weavers, and to receive those juveniles who have no guardians as apprentices under the Act of 1850, when released, has been very favourably received by Government.

A CORRESPONDENT sends an up-country paper the following particulars of a journey over the B. B. and C. I. Railway during the interruptions caused in through communication by the floods:—

"Much time seemed to be wasted after Jubulpore was left, and we did not reach the break, 20 miles distant, until a quarter to seven. Consequently the crossing of passengers and luggage had to be made by torchlight, for it very soon [illegible] over the first river in a boat: there was a small bridge over the second as a kind of temporary arrangement. These streams are of no great volume in ordinary seasons; but the heavy rains that were quite changed their character, and it will probably be a year before they are re-bridged. We were sent on in trollies after the line was again reached, and every attention was shown us, but owing to the small number of trollies there was great delay. Some two hours and a half were spent in transferring passengers and luggage from one train to the other, and such of us as had not provided for the emergency did not dine that night until ten o'clock. We reached Bombay at 10 a. m. on the following day without further adventures."

THE recently announced Rupee Loan for 2½ crores is not, the Allahabad paper explains, to be taken as any indication of stringency in the pecuniary affairs of the Government of India. "It is the ordinary loan to meet the authorized Public Works expenditure of the year, and as the Government of India can borrow at four per cent. and can invest the money so obtained in Indian Public Works with a perfect certainty of a return of from 5 to 6 or even more per cent., the transaction is simply a profitable speculation on their part with the element of possible loss almost wholly eliminated; for unless the money is uselessly and foolishly spent afterwards by the P. W. Department on works which will never pay, there is really no other mode in which the investment can turn out badly. With Mr. Hope at the head of the Department we may safely rely on this somewhat remote contingency being safely guarded against; and this being so, the loan is rather a subject of congratulation than of condolence to those interested in the financial welfare of India."

THE result of planting operations in the Government cinchona plantations in Bengal during 1882-83 shows a total of 50,000 trees less than in the returns of 1881-82, which is attributed to the uprooting of a large number of hybrid varieties, and about 160,000 red bark trees. The total number of cinchona trees of all sorts at the close of the year was 4,711,168, and the crop was the largest yet harvested, amounting to 396,980 pounds of dry bark. The whole of the produce was made over to the factory, except about 41,800 pounds of bark which, at the request of the Secretary of State, was sent to London to be there converted into various forms of febrifuge, and returned to this country for trial by the medical department. The revenues derived from the sale of febrifuge, seed, plants, and bark amounted to Rs. 1,52,807, leaving a profit of Rs.66,284, which is equal to a dividend of 6½ per cent on the capital. The cost of an equal quantity of quinine at Rs. 96 per pound would have been Rs. 4,01,328, whereas the febrifuge used cost only Rs. 68,988, leaving a saving to the Government and the public of Rs. 3,32,340.

THE following particulars of the preparations for the great Exhibition are given by the Calcutta correspondent of the Allahabad paper:—

Although the entries close at the end of the current month, most of the exhibitors, as usual, await the eleventh hour to make an appearance. Yet the number of entries registered up to the departure of the last mail from Europe is far greater and more important than those of any of the exhibitions held hitherto within the last four years. Some 600 certain alone registers upwards of 400 exhibitors, asking in the aggregate 100,000 feet of space, and her colonies ask 50,000 feet more. It is intended that England shall take a place precedence—the Imperial Museum, or rather such portions of that building as the Trustees can spare, and the adjoining buildings will be devoted to British exhibits. The Colonial productions will follow en suite, grouped around the mother-country. Foreign courts will complete the display on the eastern side of the Chowringhee-road. Crossing this thoroughfare over a bridge being erected for that purpose, the visitors will be landed in the vast enclosure on the maidan, where the Indian section occupies an extensive and prominent building. In this, every province, every State of India will be duly represented. Next and around this building a number of kiosques and tents will be grouped and surrounded by shrubberies and plantations, leading to the most attractive and instructive portion of the display, i. e., the machinery and implement sheds. It had originally been planned to place this important section within the enclosure of the Exhibition ground, on the other side of the Chowringhee road, but owing to the increased demand for space in motion it has been deemed expedient to place it here, away from that portion of the Exhibition which needs to be carefully and quietly examined. A shed resounding with the din of machinery, the roar of steam, and the noises resulting from hundreds of engines in full play, will be better placed on the maidan. Last, though not least, the Committee have provided for the protection and proper display of gems, jewellery and other valuable stuffs in a new building being erected alongside of the Museum; this spacious chamber, when furnished adequately, ornamented, and filled with the collections already booked, will be one of the centres of attraction of the Exhibition.

A MEETING of the Colonial Council of Saigon was held on the 18th June, when a committee was appointed to consider a proposal made to the Saigon Government by the Eastern Extension Telegraph Co., to lay a cable between Saigon and Haiphong within three months, for a subsidy of francs 280,000 a year for twenty years; the revenue from telegrams to and from Tonking to belong to Government; the Telegraph Co. to be authorised to prolong the cable to Hongkong, and in this case to be entitled to all the revenue, but official telegrams from Saigon to Hongkong, Manilla, and Madras to be transmitted at half price. The committee reported dead against any subsidy to a foreign country, and advised the laying of a cable between Saigon and Haiphong by Government on certain conditions.

THE American papers which arrived here by the last mail contain accounts of destructive floods in the states of Kansas and Missouri. It appears that owing to heavy rains the river Missouri overflowed its bank, submerging enormous tracts of prairie land. It is estimated that ten thousand people have been rendered homeless, and that a large number of lives has been lost. The amount of the damage to crops alone exceeds a million dollars. The crops destroyed consist principally of wheat.

THE New York Board of Immigration is exceedingly indignant at what one of the members describes as a "systematised effort on the part of England to pour into America the work-house poor of Ireland." At a recent meeting of the body instances were given of men and women who, it was alleged, had been sent across the Atlantic by the British Government and landed in the new world in a state of destitution. One of the worst cases was stated to be that of Peter Carty, a native of Longford county. He had a wife and five children, the eldest being ten and the youngest two years of age. Having been evicted from a house and a small plot of land which he occupied in Ireland, he sought refuge with his wife and family in a workhouse. The Poorlaw Guardians encouraged him to emigrate, defrayed the cost of the passage of himself and his family to New York, and gave him £1 as pocket money. The Act to regulate immigration empowers the Immigration Commissioners to refuse permission to land persons unable to take care of themselves without becoming a public charge. The Collector of New York, however, considers this law to be ineffectual in the face of the present "pauper invasion," inasmuch as it provides no penalties, so that even if paupers were landed nothing could be done with the owners of the steamer. A committee has been appointed to adopt precautions against the "deluging of the country by the pauper population of Ireland."

THE American papers have devoted a large amount of their space to chronicling some facts and a good deal of fiction relative to Mrs. Langtry and her proceedings. The New York World last to hand, for instance, has a column of rubbish about "Langtry as a mermaid," describing "how she appeared yesterday sporting in the surf." The following is a sample:—

"Early yesterday morning she did not have the white mantle on her shoulders. Not much. She walked down to the beach in a pair of tightly fitting knee-breeches and a jaunty jacket belted in around the waist. A Turkish towel fell around her form, which she cast off by the margin of the ocean. The brown hair is waving and rustling in the breeze and half the white, ivory arms are gleaming in the sunlight as she throws them up over her head and clasps them at the back of her neck. What few people were at the beach gazed and gazed, while others ran down from the hotels as the word passed from mouth to mouth that the Lily was about to take a plunge and a swim. She waded out slowly and yet more slowly, the water creeping up on the little knee-breeches by inches and gaining slowly on the jaunty, belted brown jacket. Suddenly the ivory arms gleam for an instant and she plunges out of sight. The billow rolls in upon the beach and the white arms shine out again, shaming the foaming surf. The brown locks fall heavy on her back, &c., &c.

And Mrs. Langtry is so fond of this sort of thing, or of the money it assists her to make, that she purposes to return to America after a brief sojourn in Europe.

A NOTIFICATION in the Public Works Department, with reference to the Attock Bridge Resolution, states that the name of Mr. A. M. Rendel, Consulting Engineer to the India Office, who worked out in England the details of the design, was inadvertently omitted from the list of those specially mentioned. A revised list of the staff employed on the Punjab Northern State Railway since its commencement is also published.

FRANCE is not the only country where the duel is still occasionally indulged in. A duel took place recently between two editors at Richmond, Virginia, named Beirne and Elam, in consequence of some offensive remarks by the latter to the prejudice of Beirne. The weapons were revolvers, at eight paces. At the second round Elam received a bullet in the thigh. This is Beirne's second affray, and Elam's third, and the second in which he has been wounded. Elam is a nominee for the Governorship of the State, and it is considered that this incident will secure the election to him. Under the law of Virginia duelling is a felony, and disqualifies for office, after a conviction has been recorded. The challenge passed a fortnight ago, and warrants were promptly issued; but since then the principals have been dodging the police.

MILITARY NEWS.

THE arrangements for the concentration of troops belonging to the Bengal Army, for field-exercises and manœuvres, during the ensuing cold season, have been completed and sanctioned by the Government. The Meerut Camp, which will be considerably the largest, will be formed about the 1st December, and kept up till the 1st February. The total force will be thus constituted: Cavalry Brigade—E-A., R. H. A.; 13th Hussars, 13th Bengal Lancers; and two squadrons 5th Bengal Cavalry. First Infantry Brigade—2nd Battalion Fifth Fusiliers; 2nd Goorkhas; 29th Punjab Native Infantry. 2nd Infantry Brigade—2nd Battalion Liverpool Regiment; 2nd Battalion Royal Irish Regiment; 3rd Goorkhas. Artillery—G-A., R. H. A.; G-4 R. A.; and L-3 R. A. The Umballa Camp will also assemble approximately on the 1st December. The force will be: Cavalry Brigade—F-A. R. H. A., 9th Lancers, 11th Bengal Lancers; one Infantry Brigade containing the three battalions above named of British Infantry; one battery of Horse Artillery, and a Mountain Battery. At Meean Meer the 6th Dragoon Guards and 19th Punjab Native Infantry will be brought in from Sialkote; 1st Goorkhas from Jammaula, and 4th Goorkhas from Bukloh; a detachment from the King's Rifles at Ferozepore; the 8th Hussars on relief from Pindi; and K-B., R. H. A., from Umballa. The force altogether will consist of one brigade of cavalry, two brigades of infantry, and P-3 R. A.; and it will be assembled about December 12. At Rawal Pindi the camp will consist of D-A., R. H. A., King's Dragoon Guards (after the 20th December), 15th and 19th Bengal Cavalry, 2nd Battalion Wiltshire Regiment from Jhelum, a regiment from England; 1st Bengal Native Infantry, 21st Punjab Native Infantry, and 45th Sikhs from Jhelum—in all one brigade of cavalry and two of infantry—5-I. R. A., and 5-1 Southern Division R. A.

ACCORDING to Simla gossip, a regiment of Bengal Cavalry is to be sent to Egypt. The Lahore paper thinks it is not improbable that, owing to the prevalence of cholera in that country, the authorities may have entertained the idea of replacing a part of the present garrison with native troops from India.

MAJOR S. SMITH, R. E., will be employed in the P. W. D., Madras.

LIEUTENANT HUNT, Leicestershire Regiment, resigns his probationary appointment in the Bombay Staff Corps, and proceeds home on leave.

THE following appointments have been made:—Major Michell, 14th N. I., to be second-in-command 13th N. I., vice Stevens, deceased; Lieutenant Walker, 40th N. I., to be wing officer on probation, 13th N. I.; Lieutenant Johnstone, Leinster Regiment, to the 5th Punjab Infantry, as probationer for the Staff Corps.

THE number of captains now verging on the decrepid old age stage of 40, and so coming within range of the ruthless clause of the Royal Warrant, is a contemporary remarks, increasing; amongst them is Captain C. M. Hayes Newington, of the Cheshire Regiment, who will reach that age of uselessness, as captain, on 22nd September next, and should no step go in the regiment amongst the majors, he will have to join the half-pay list on that date. Captain Newington has over 20 years' service, all of which he has passed in the 22nd Regiment. At present he is holding the appointment of Station Staff Officer at Cherat, where "Captain John" is an authority, and where his departure will be much regretted, he having taken a fatherly interest in the place and its surroundings. So that Cherat, as well as Kumaon, can boast of its "King."

THE "OUTRAGE" SCARE IN CALCUTTA.

THE Calcutta correspondent of the Pioneer, who does not appear to have much of the verifying faculty to boast of, or to understand all that would be involved in the literal acceptance of his theory, writes on the latest of the "outrages" in Calcutta as follows, under date July 20:—

"A feeling of deep indignation has been aroused, and is unquestionably prevalent among Europeans in this city, in connection with the recent case of attempted criminal assault on a young English lady, to which the Englishman is responsible for bringing in the issue of the 17th instant. Endeavours—doomed from the first—to keep the occurrence profoundly secret, have signally failed, and the matter is to-day such an open secret—names being freely mentioned—that I now venture to refer to it with some degree of candour. The occurrence took place early on the morning of Friday last, in a room on the ground-floor of a house a few hundred yards south from Park-street, in occupation as a pleasure by a Judge of the High Court, who unfortunately, but naturally, has become an object of great aversion and antipathy to Lord Macaulay's friends—the Bengalis—since his sentence in the recent committal of Surendra Nath Banerji to the Presidency Jail for contempt of the High Court. Ever since Surendra Nath Banerji's committal the learned Judge to whom I refer has been constantly annoyed with anonymous letters couched in the most offensive language, and many of them containing dire threats of vengeance in re Banerji and the Judgeship, offering him the grossest insults, promising him an early death, and so on. One letter, received by his lordship in the High Court the other morning, indicated to him that an early opportunity would be taken by its courageous Bengali writer and his allies of cutting up his lordship into eighty pieces! Not only have threats of personal injury been uttered against the Judge I allude to, but he has been informed, I believe by letter, that outrages similar to that attempted on the wife of the Public Prosecutor here some time ago would be committed on the ladies of his household, and the revelation of the foiled villany of last Friday morning seems to be that an attempt to carry out one of these cowardly and blackguard threats of insult combined with injury has now been made. The circumstances of last Friday morning's occurrence it is unnecessary to detail, but there is great reason to suppose that the attempt was committed by some low-caste native paid to commit the villany. Owing to the precaution which the villain took on entering the lady's room of putting out the light, no one saw his face before his precipitate flight; and although efforts are being made to trace the scoundrel, under the direction of the Deputy Commissioner of Police, Mr. H. G. Wilkins, there is next to no prospect of the rascal ever being caught. I may say that the present indignation is much greater than that which was aroused by the attempted assault on the wife of the Public Prosecutor for several reasons, one being that in the last case of assault the indications are clearer that the offence was instigated by men who have at least so far been educated as to be able to write anonymous letters. One or two more instances of occurrences similar to that which took place in Hungerford-street last Friday morning will cause, in all probability, such a storm of indignation and ill-feeling amongst Europeans that serious results may be expected to follow. Secretly planned assaults on defenceless European ladies by paid villains certainly cannot be tolerated."

THE IMPERIAL LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

THE Council met at Simla on Wednesday, the 18th inst., when there were present the following members:—H. E. the President, H. H. the Lieut.-Governor of the Punjab, H. E. the Commander-in-Chief, Hon'ble C. P. Ilbert, Major the Hon'ble Evelyn Baring, Lieut.-General the Hon'ble T. Wilson, Hon'ble Sir Steuart Bayley, Hon'ble T. C. Hope, Hon'ble W. W. Hunter, Hon'ble J. W. Quinton, Hon'ble D. G. Barkley.

SARDAR BIKRAMA SINGH AND THE KAPURTHALLA STATE.

The Hon'ble Mr. Ilbert moved that the report of the Select Committee on the Bill to confirm and give effect to an award made by H. E. the Viceroy and Governor-General regarding certain matters in dispute between Sardar Bikrama Singh and the Kapurthalla State be taken into consideration.

The motion was put and agreed to.

The Hon'ble Mr. Ilbert also moved that the Bill be passed.

The motion was put and agreed to.

LOCAL SELF-GOVERNMENT IN BRITISH BURMAH.

The Hon'ble Mr. Ilbert said:—My lord, I have to move for leave to introduce a Bill to amend the law relating to local self-government in British Burmah. The Government of India has for some time had under consideration the question of amending the law relating to municipalities in British Burmah, so as to bring it more completely into harmony with those principles of local self-government which have been recently laid down by the Government of India, and generally adopted in other provinces. The Bill which I am now asking for leave to introduce has been prepared for the purpose of making such amendments in the existing Municipal Act in Burmah (Act VII. of 1874) as are needed for the purpose of giving effect to this object. We have found it convenient to repeal this Act, and opportunity has been taken to introduce various improvements in matters of minor detail, such as arrangement, drafting, and so forth, which the experience of the last eight or nine years has suggested. I do not propose to trouble the Council with any detailed account of the Bill, the provisions of which are fully explained in the Statement of Objects and Reasons. It will be sufficient to refer very shortly to one or two of the more important alterations which will be made in the Bill. In the first place, the local Government is empowered by the Bill to include within the limits of a municipality, not merely a town, but also any tract of country adjoining a town. This provision, however, is not subject to the circumstances of the larger seaport towns, but it will enable a small town to include within the limits some kind of organization for the neighbouring rural district. Where this provision is applied it will be necessary to consult additional funds from rural sources, and also to give such additional powers to the municipal authorities as will be requisite to enable them to deal with rural questions. Provisions having these objects in view have accordingly been introduced in the Bill. Then as to the persons who are to constitute a municipal committee is of opinion that no suitable system of election can be devised. The chairman of a municipal committee will usually be elected, except in places where the local Government by notification shall suspend or bar any portion of these arrangements. The Bill does not reproduce the provisions of the existing law, which requires a municipality to provide for its funds. Police charges will now be borne by the Government, and a considerable amount set free for the purposes of general improvement. Under the existing Act the Chief Commissioner has authority to suspend or bar any portion of the acts, proceedings, or rules of any municipal committee. For this power the Bill proposes to substitute a carefully modified system of control similar to that established by the Local Self-Government Bills recently introduced for other provinces. Again, under the existing law, the Chief Commissioner has full discretionary power to determine by rule the limits within which the local authorities are to be empowered to execute public works. This discretion is limited by the Bill. On the other hand, the Bill provides that the four largest municipalities may undertake works for which the estimates do not exceed Rs. 20,000, and the rest works for which the estimates do not exceed Rs. 10,000.

The motion was put and agreed to.

The Hon'ble Mr. Ilbert also moved that he be allowed to introduce the Bill, and that it and the Statement of Objects and Reasons be published.

The motions were put and agreed to.

EMIGRATION OF NATIVES OF INDIA.

The Hon'ble Mr. Ilbert moved that the Hon'ble Sir C. Ba'ly be added to the Select Committee on the Bill to amend the law relating to the emigration of natives of India.

The motion was put and agreed to.

The Council adjourned for a week.

BREACH OF THE PORT TRUST BYE-LAWS.—Mr. Spencer, foreman of Messrs. Hill and Grennan, stevedores, was summoned by the Port Trust authorities before Mr. C. P. Cooper, yesterday morning, to answer a charge of employing a crane in removing cargo from under the combings of a vessel instead of slinging packages under the hatchway, in accordance with the Port Bye-laws. Mr. Hill of the firm of Messrs. Cleveland, Little, and Nicholson, appeared for the complainants; and Mr. Conroy, of the firm of Messrs. Hore, Conroy, and Brown, for the defendant. Mr. Conroy admitted the breach, but submitted that it was committed in total ignorance of the existence of the rule. Under these circumstances he asked his worship to impose only a slight fine. In disposing of the case the magistrate said that by the breach the accused had made himself liable to a fine of Rs. 100, but bearing in mind that the offence might have been committed in ignorance of the rule, his worship would fine him Rs. 25 only.

THE FATAL ACCIDENT TO A NONAGENARIAN.—An adjourned inquest was held yesterday at the Coroner's bungalow, Byculla, into the circumstances connected with the death of Dadooemeah Shaik Essoob, aged about 90 or 100 years, who died from the effects of injuries he had sustained on Friday last by his having been knocked down and run over by a carriage at Hoozria-street. The further evidence adduced went to show that deceased was injured by the carriage of Eduljee Kharajee, whilst in charge of Govind Ramjee, the coachman. The horse had taken fright and bolted from Baba Daboo-street. The verdict was that the death of the deceased was caused by fracture of the skull as the result of his having been accidentally knocked down by a phaeton which was drawn by a runaway horse. The coachman, Govind Ramjee, was yesterday charged before Mr. Dosabhoy Framjee with having on or about the 20th instant committed to guard against probable danger to human life, and secondly, with having caused the death of Dadooemeah Shaik Essoob by doing a rash and negligent act. On the application of Superintendent Brewin the case was postponed for hearing to the 2nd proximo to enable him to instruct the Public Prosecutor to appear. The accused was liberated on the following bail:—Rs. 500 in his own recognizance and two sureties in a sum of Rs. 250 each.

DIVINE SERVICE.

THE ILLICIT TRADE IN AMMUNITION.

THE further hearing of the charges against the five persons, viz., Hashambhoy Dattoo, Mahomedbhoy Hashambhoy, Meeralybhoy Moraj, Mahadoram Buldeodas, and Vithuldas Tricumdas, at the instance of Mr. J. McDermot, Inspector of Arms and Ammunition, for illegally dealing in ammunition, took place before Mr. C. P. Cooper, at the Fort Police Court, yesterday. Mr. Little, Acting Public Prosecutor, appeared for the Crown, and Mr. Lang (instructed by Mr. Sayani and also by Mr. Lynch) for the defence.

Mr. Lang made an application that accused Nos. 4 and 5 should be released on bail on the ground that the letters (which on the last occasion had been ordered to be translated), instead of carrying the case against his clients as Mr. Little had thought, were in their favour, and went far to show want of complicity. He read a letter which had been written from Cawnpore to one Hursamul Madhewram, acknowledging "an invoice and a railway receipt for ten bags," and further stating that amongst the condemned copper received about two maunds of caps of copper, such as are used in muskets, have been found, and that the police there had inquired from whom they had been got. A reply had been given that they had been received from the writer's agents in Bombay. The writer had also been asked to obtain information as to the person from whom he (Hursamul) had purchased the articles, with full particulars of the person from whom he had bought them. Another letter, which was written to the same person from Cawnpore, was read by Mr. Lang, asking for information as to who was the successful man through whom the purchase was made. These letters, Mr. Lang said, showed conclusively that the caps had not been sent to Cawnpore by his clients in any previous request from the Cawnpore people to that effect. The inquiry in the letters as to the person through whom the copper had been sent was as much as to say that it had been sent through an agent. His clients would never have sent caps as such without having an order. There were little bits in the condemned copper which the police called percussion caps. Whether these were percussion caps could not be decided until the whole of the caps had come down, which would be a considerable time yet. Mr. Lang pointed out that the invoice showed that the whole quantity of copper was bought at about Rs. 39 and was invoiced at Rs. 40, and that no separate consignment had been made of the caps. The goods had all been purchased at the same rate as condemned copper. As soon as the Cawnpore police had seized the caps, a letter expressing surprise had been received by the Bombay people, showing that the latter persons would not have

READ BROTHERS, of London, request purchasers of their Bottled Ale and Stout to ask for "THE DOG'S HEAD BRAND," because another and totally distinct Bottler uses the figure of a Bull Dog, and thus two bottlings of entirely different character may both be called "BULL DOG."

The original "Bull Dog" mark is the registered property of READ BROTHERS, and their bottling still often goes by that name, but the title of "DOG'S HEAD BRAND" is theirs exclusively, and is the only one that is protected by the injunction of the Lords Justices of England.

CONSULTING ELECTRICIAN:
GEORGE ARNOLD GRINLAY, Esq., M. S. T. E.

TEMPORARY OFFICES:
19, RAMPART-ROW, BOMBAY.

THIS Company is formed for the purpose of supplying Electricity in all its applications to light, motive power, &c., as also all articles connected therewith, throughout the Presidency of Bombay (exclusive of Scinde); the Native States subject thereto; with Baroda; the Berars; and the territories of Hyderabad. Also over the present systems and lines and future extensions of the Great Indian Peninsula, and Bombay, Baroda and Central India Railways.

It has secured the business, good-will, licenses, and contracts belonging to, or being negotiated for by, the Eastern Electric Light and Power Company, of London, within the limits abovementioned. As also the concessions for the exclusive right of using, licensing, and selling the plant and appliances pertaining to the various patents now belonging to the London Company.

These patents include the Brush Dynamo Machine and Arc Lamp and the Lane Fox Incandescent Lamp, the license for the use and sale of the Swan Incandescent Lamp, and supplies of storage batteries of the Sellon, Volckmar and Faure patents.

In Europe and America the admirable results both as regards efficiency and economy obtainable from these various systems are well known and are becoming daily more widely appreciated.

About 18,000 Brush Arc Lamps are ready in use in the United States alone, and they soon promise to be almost as extensively adopted in Great Britain for town and other large lightings; whilst the Lane Fox and Swan Incandescent Lamps are equally successful for internal purposes. In securing these patent rights and powers, however, the Bombay Company will not be restricted to their sole use, but will have the privilege of adopting any other improved systems or methods of working which may hereafter be developed.

For India the advantages of Electricity over all other means of lighting are specially manifest. Gas, Oil, &c., are so much dearer than in Europe and America that competition in the matter of cost is on a very different basis, whilst its freedom from heat and noxious exhalations and absence of danger from fire peculiarly adapt it for use in hot climates. In fact, it is the light of the future for this country and there can be no doubt that both for public and private purposes it will rapidly come into extensive operation.

Although the Eastern Electric Light & Power Co. have only been represented here for a comparatively short time and have necessarily been largely occupied with preliminary operations, they are now in a position to hand over a business producing upwards of Rs. 50,000 per annum, and so confident are they, from the numerous applications for the light which they have already in hand, of the ultimate success of the undertaking that they GUARANTEE A DIVIDEND ON THE WORKING OF THE COMPANY DURING THE FIRST THREE YEARS AT THE RATE OF EIGHT PER CENT. PER ANNUM ON THE PAID-UP CAPITAL. After the business has been developed, the Directors think that a probable dividend of 12 per cent. might be calculated upon.

The amount to be paid to the Eastern, by the Bombay Company for the business, good-will, patents, licenses, concessions, &c., is Rs. 1,50,000 in Cash and Rs. 1,50,000 in fully paid-up Shares. These amounts, however, will be vested in Trustees for security of the guaranteed dividend.

The plant, machinery, buildings, &c., to be taken over will be at actual cost price.

No promotion money has been paid and all preliminary expenses of every kind up to, and inclusive of, the registration of the Bombay Company will be borne by the Eastern Electric Light and Power Company of London.

The working expenses of the Company will be based, as far as possible, on minimum monthly salaries and commissions on net profits.

Prospectuses and forms of application can be obtained at the Company's Offices, or from the Solicitors Messrs. Prescot and Winter, or the Agent, Mr. John Marshall, where all the Agreements above-mentioned may be seen and any information obtained.
